

Chapter Seven

2.14.2020 :53am Friday

1. Perilous times call for drastic action. We can't sit on the sidelines any longer. The earth experiment could fail if love does not permeate its fibers. This is a call to action. There is nothing you can't do. You have the power of God at each of your disposals. Use your light energy freely, anywhere and everywhere. It always knows what to do. Bless those who are sick and those who are well. Don't judge appearances but know that everyone here needs your blessing. They need your extension of God's love for healing. That leads to perfect joy, perfect health, and abundance of all things that are truly needed and helpful in this life.
2. You may work at a job but the job itself is not really the reason why you are there. The saints have been strategically placed to hold this precious energy and to share it. This is always the true reason for you being anywhere physically. Your body is a vehicle for your spirit. It takes your true self where it is needed.
3. Love accepts all. Fear is suspicious of all. Your job is to bring all into the embrace of love. Love trumps hate. Loves cares not about appearances or ideology. Those are egoic principles. Love is expansive and inclusive of anyone and everyone. The same cannot be said about fear.
4. Recognize that fear is all around you and your job is to simply shine light on it. There are enough of you now to do this. And with each passing day, your numbers will get stronger. It is a love tsunami.
5. Love everyone who comes into your path. Love everyone equally. Share your light for the whole world to see. You are each one a sun of God, a son or daughter of the great light.
6. We will talk about specifics in future installments of this text. But for now, our purpose is to sound the alarm and re-awaken those of you who have fallen back asleep. Who have grown too weary, and perhaps simply stopped caring about the "illusion". The earth is precious and is worth saving. We all want to have places we can come to, to create magical wonders. Now is your time to flourish and to show others the ways of the truth, for they are many.
7. Be strong in your convictions. There is and will be great opposition to the principles that we stand for. This is time for the harvest but there is a deep frost. Even factual truth is under attack. Hold onto your hats. There is a storm coming.

Chapter Eight

2.15.2020 5:06am Saturday

1. The importance of today's message is for each of you to take a pro-active stance that is protective of those around you. There cannot be a mass shooting and loss of life, with all of the misery that this entails, if a Christed daughter or son is in that place. It's much easier for everyone involved if we can prevent as much destruction as possible. Love always supports the weak and vulnerable.
2. Love your neighbors as yourself because they literally are part of the One Self, here to grow and develop into full bodied souls just like you. We want to eventually eliminate all tragic things that take lives away and stop soul growth in that particular mind-body vehicle. Miracles save time, remember? You are each a miracle and we seek to add to your numbers by leaps and bounds. The more of you that there are, the greater our influence will be, and the more powerful we will become. This is when we will see the greatest amount of positive change on the earth.
3. Having Christed souls from all walks of life is a crucial part of the plan. People from all religions and from no religion. People who look every conceivable way can all demonstrate what unconditional love and union with God or divine energy looks like. We want to be relatable to all, not a body of clones. Creative souls aren't conformist in nature. We question that mindset of the status quo. And challenge it by expressing ourselves how we choose to do so. We do what feels right in that moment, without concern for what this person or that group may think about it. We are each one free, free as a butterfly. Free from any and all attempts of mind control, which is fear based and is therefore ego orientated.
4. Our Christ energy was maintained for a long while before it became sustained as a new way of life. We go where this energy takes us and do what it offers us. The energy of the 1960's is all we know.

Chapter Nine

2.16.2020 4:27am Sunday

1. The trick to sustained Christ Consciousness is knowing when you have reached the tipping point and this is all you know. You see Christ as a developmental and developing entity in everyone. And you are aware of the built in resistance (ego). This is what produces fear and manifests in unpleasant and sometimes terrifying ways. But it also strengthens spirit and causes it to grow. You are aware of the duality in humans. You also see that creation is often times messy. But there is really only one thing going on, which is the growth of the soul. It is the painful and miserable events in life that reap the greatest rewards. So, don't get caught up in what you see on the news. Just know that the involved souls needed the lessons to be delivered to them in harsh envelopes, as each of you have experienced many times in previous lives or incarnations.

2. There really isn't any "good" and "evil" and there really isn't duality. There is love and there is push back. The push back is not evil, although it produces unwanted, unwelcome, and evil appearing side effects. That's what they are and that's all they are. The effects of resistance to love don't really have any power, although it sometimes seems like they do. They are not inspired by an enemy of God, as God has no enemies. The human ego, or operating system, is fully capable by design, to resist love and create horror. But again, everything that egos create is temporary. The lessons that arrive on the doorsteps of those who lie, steal, harm, and even kill, negates or erases the Karma eventually. There are debts owed here and they will be paid back one way or another. Life can be trusted in this way.

3. Your job is to keep all of this in mind, but look through what your eyes and ears show you. And do your work of watering the souls of your brothers and sisters. There are many blessings that are very appropriate here. "May the love of our Father/Mother embrace you" is one. "I know you as an expression of love" is another. The words do not matter as much as the intent and sometimes the proximity.

4. Just like how you experience summer when your part of the world is closest to the sun, some individuals need a heavy dose of your presence more than others. Some things need a 450° oven, while others are fine at 325°. There really is a science behind what we do.

Chapter Ten

2.17.2020 4:35am Monday

1. Imaginations of the collective are the most difficult types of fear to shine light on. When half of the world believes that the other half is evil and should be punished by the god of their imaginings, then you have a recipe for disaster. This has always happened here but not to this degree and not in such a widespread manner. There are leaders who have taken advantage of the collective fear of the other and harnessed it for their own selfish motives. None of this is love because love never needs to be protected. It only seeks to extend itself.

2. Ideology is an oftentimes confusing, jumbled up collection of thoughts about how things should be, and who is to blame for why they aren't. It is the cement that holds the illusion together. How are we to combat this? Simply put, it makes things harder. But we still operate in the same manner, blessing all of those who are in its grip. What we teach is freedom from what so many have latched onto. People will find you attractive and frightening at the same time. Stay out of the conflict but light the path to the exits.

3. Some of the most fearful ideology is generational. The old being replaced by the young is nature's remedy for extreme viewpoint melting. Until then, observe the incredible strength of egoic thought, and know that it does not represent the true power of the universe. It is illusion. It is what we seek to transform so that we can reclaim the earth as a 3D extension of our true nature.

4. Again, many feel threatened by us and what we represent. Freedom is very frightening for those who want to be told what to do and what not to do. By people who are actually taking advantage of them, exploiting their fears for their own personal gain.

5. We, on the other hand, are leader free. We come from the widest backgrounds imaginable and show that the old concepts of leader and follower no longer apply. We each walk with one foot in this world and one foot in the spiritual realm. As expressions of He/She who sent us here to do their work. We each complement each other. There is no competition here. We do not see one another as "others". We are united in oneness because we each know the truth of who we are.

6. We are no longer characters defined by "good" things that happened in the past, "bad" things, things we like and things we don't, roles we play, aspirations we have for the future ... None of this matters any longer. "I" don't really exist because "I AM" is my true identity, as it is yours. It is a shared identity with trillions of different aspects, different manifestations. Some of us may have green hair, some have beards and wear high heels, but underneath we are the same. We are God, who has been here all along, hiding in plain sight. This is what we teach.

Chapter Eleven

2.18.2020 2:32am Tuesday

1. Imagine a world where all who dwell on it, know the truth of who they are. This is our aim. We tolerated all of the lies but now things need to speed up. The most important thing now is that you don't live in lies anymore. You aren't really a separate "person" any longer so all of those definitions have fallen by the wayside. You are spirit, gender free, past free and limitation free. You are in the "Holy Instant" and are in a constant exchange in dialogue when called to do so. You are gentle as lambs when conversing with your brothers and sisters and your message is simple enough for the uninitiated levels of understanding.
2. Over time, your physical form may change and will reflect who you have become – bringers of light. We seek to bring understanding and the comfort that this brings to those who only know physical reality. We don't tell God what to do. We tell others what God is doing and through the miracle, help them to accept and understand their life's situations and the meaning or content of those situations.
3. Teaching about the spirit world and how it is our true home is one of the most important things you can teach during these times. We are not our bodies and we never truly die. We just keep transforming. There's never an end. Chapters end and books end but new ones are always beginning. Death is the biggest illusion of them all.

Chapter Twelve

2.19.2020 3:29am Wednesday

1. Knowing who you are and knowing who you aren't is pivotal here. You aren't the same person you used to think of yourself as. Other people may still see you that way but the former owner has left the property, although your belongings remain. You still have a name that you respond to. You still have worldly responsibilities and old relationships, although many of those have transformed from special relationships to holy relationships, at least on your part. You can't truly have a holy relationship with an unconscious or uninitiated person.
2. You are now in relationship with everyone and everything. Can the sun deny light and warmth to those it deems are unworthy? No, it is available to all, as is your light and warmth. You no longer need to be validated by human relationships. There is nothing they can provide because you have it all. You are not in need of anything a human could provide. You already have it all. Your energy and enthusiasm for life flows from the unity you have with your Source. This is the Divine Self, not the small self in isolation.
3. This is what you model to those in separation. That there is another way to live here, that something else is here. That humans have an identity crisis that you have once shared, but allowed to heal with just a little willingness on your part. You are each at one with your creator, who doesn't live up in the sky somewhere. He/She lives inside each of you and now lives as you. The old "you" of ideas has been cast aside.
4. This is the dawn of sustained Christ Consciousness on the earth. In the Bible, it says that God had one son. It can also be said that God has one Sun. You are each mighty and powerful rays of that Sun. Nothing can stop us now. We are each transforming the landscape.

Chapter Thirteen

2.20.2020 2:59am Thursday

1. The time has come for a new approach to living here, one that is radically different, one in which the old “you” isn’t here at all. In its place is the divine You, a representation of the One Self, a Self where a fully mature soul is in a leadership role. This is the elevated self of form that was taught in A Course of Love.
2. Hold onto your hats ladies and gentlemen because mature souls don’t react like egos do. They see everything with a clear lens. The day to day drama doesn’t bother them in the slightest. They model peace in the midst of human drama, without being a part of it, without allowing thoughts and behavior to affect them.
3. You are non-reactive now. You observe and bless instead of react and enhance the situation by making it bigger. You see, on earth, problems and situations of all types tend to get bigger. Because of all of the reactivity, the negative energy that keeps getting piled on top of what was already there. This stops with you. Saints don’t judge things as “good” or “bad” any longer. They see products of love and products of fear. The latter is blessed and brought into alignment. We don’t fix anything, generally speaking. We just stop more negative energy – judgment – from attaching itself to the situation causing it to grow and worsen. Then, we perform miracles to help acceptance grow. And to help other souls discover new ways to prevent these words and behavior from doing harm in the future.
4. Sounds easy, right? Well, it gets easy with practice. It becomes more natural the more you practice it. Non-reacting is the answer to so many human problems. Reducing negative energy, by replacing it with loving acceptance, is key to changing things on this planet.

Chapter Fourteen

2.21.2020 3:19am Friday

1. Today's topic is sex. The need and desire for this type of intimacy between one body and another is largely left in the past for many of you. Humans are sexual beings because of the need for procreation and the desire for reunion with something they believe they have lost contact with. The sex drive is very powerful. The failure to control it has complicated so many lives.
2. We, on the other hand, have weakened sex drives because the union with Our Creator has been restored. Our relationships with others are not need driven. They are enhancement based. They are beyond the body experience. Is sex wrong? No, not at all. It's just that for us, at this point, living a life of celibacy is preferable and less complicated.
3. We have intimacy in union with God and with all. Unless sex is a part of a holy relationship, it can be harmful and confusing to those who believe they are bodies. This topic has to be a personal choice but the natural flow has taken many of you into celibacy and this is a natural development.
4. In the spirit world, sexual intimacy is not part of our experience because it is not needed. You each live in our world and are seen here. You reflect our values. Be cautious with sexual expression. The choice is yours and we support whatever that is. Know, however, that if it hasn't happened, that celibacy will be knocking on your doorstep one day soon.

Chapter Fifteen

2.22.2020 3:39am Saturday

1. The passing of the guard is a concept we wish to return to as today's topic. The concept of Christ has grown from a singular entity, Jesus, to a multi-dimensional entity. All of the many on the earth now, who are practicing Christ Consciousness in their own unique ways and visions.
2. They can't put all of you in jail and torture you like they did to me! We are stronger and more clandestine. The world can tolerate us now, largely because they aren't sure about what we are exactly. We aren't that different from them. Except perhaps in our attitudes about things. Maybe we are thought of as kind and generous people.
3. Make yourselves available to those who seek you out. Share the truth, which is the truth about the identity crisis here. Provide resources if asked to do so. Share channeled writings or web based content that is meaningful to you and has helped you to blossom. Share writers who teach about the truth. In other words, plant seeds. Each seed that you plant will take on a life of its own.
4. We don't concern ourselves with someone's spiritual journey itself. We are not in charge of the atonement and awakening process. We are the farmers who plant and nourish seeds.
5. Discussion groups work for those who are more socially oriented. Some souls, however, do better in a one on one sharing encounter.
6. Do you have the first two volumes of this trilogy as well as other spiritual books, sitting on a shelf or in a box somewhere? Give them away or at least allow them to be borrowed. They can't work their magic unless they are opened by a curious and willing reader.
7. Teach the concept of sharing. Not only information can be shared, but everything can be. We are just visitors here and own nothing. That dollar in your wallet isn't really yours. If it is just sitting there and you have no real need for it, then share it! That's what it is truly for!
