

Chapter Seventy Two

3.30.2020 3:03pm Monday

1. The physical body will transform when it is being informed by a mature soul. Most bodies are informed by the egoic operating system and reflect fear based thoughts. Have you ever really looked at the average person? You can see why they look the way that they do. It's written all over them. You can see tension, anxiety, depression, and anger in the ways people look and present themselves; with clothing, jewelry, piercings, and tattoos. These things in and of themselves don't necessarily mean anything. But they are used to present an image, a way of sending the world a message about identity.
2. You are probably not concerned with image or how people perceive you because once spirit takes charge, "you" are all about presence. You can adorn the body as you wish or be a nudist, it doesn't matter in the slightest. The body is now a temple for the light within.
3. How will the body reflect the new tenant? It will become sick rarely. It will better be able to communicate what it wants to eat and when it needs fresh air and a walk or a bike ride. It will be accepted as it is, warts and all. A soul will love the body's grey hair and an older man's protruding mid-section and will therefore probably not be bothered by them.
4. Maybe a soul's body looks like a "gym body" but it probably won't. And a mature soul will not seek to torture itself with excessive exercise and dietary supplements, in order to achieve some egoic ideal body type.
5. We love our wrinkles and the size of our lips and will not be spending money to look younger. We are fine just the way we are. Acceptance is the fruit of spirit. When the soul takes charge, the light will permeate every pore and everyone will know who you are in truth.

Chapter Seventy Three

3.30.2020 8:37pm Monday

1. Are you willing to leave everything behind? What if we told you that your services were required elsewhere; a different town, a different city, a different state, a different country? What if all of the details fell into place and you knew without a shadow of a doubt that we were paving the way for you to go elsewhere and fulfill a specific purpose there? Would you go or would you give us a list of reasons why you couldn't do that: It would be too scary, too uncertain, too hard?
2. I'm telling you now that many if not most of you will be given the call to relocate. You can either look at this through the eyes of ego and stamp your feet because of how unreasonable the request is, or you can look at this through the eyes of your soul and jump at the opportunity.
3. We see the big picture and know where saints' skill sets are most needed. There aren't that many of you at this time. You would populate a large town. We have to utilize our resources to maximum advantage.
4. Your small lives and your illusion of control are over. You exist to serve love and to serve God. We will make you as comfortable as possible but there are many hard tasks ahead of us and we will be asking for your assistance and expertise. Plan on the unexpected. In many ways, your lives are just beginning!

Chapter Seventy Four

3.31.2020 10:30am Tuesday

1. Celebrate! Celebrate everything, every single thing that has brought you to this point where “you” were unraveled and where I AM emerged as victor. There are no spoils of war because there was no war. Everything in your human lifetimes was a gift; the failed relationships, the disasters large and small, the hard times and the good times. They ultimately helped bring you to your knees and whittle away all of the false ideas about yourself.

2. Say “thank you” to all of the “monsters” you’ve met and know that they weren’t really monsters after all. They were just another version of you, trying to do the best with what they had available. Show compassion because (trust me when I say this) people have certainly been compassionate with each of you because each of you have been a monster to someone else.

3. Everything is out of the closet now. There were no terrible things that should not have happened. They needed to happen and were allowed to happen to eventually help to transform you. Accept this unconditionally. There are no exceptions. If a person was raped or murdered, then that is the experience the soul required at that time. Rape and murder were certainly not God’s will and no one “deserves” them. They are part of the egoic experience and are summoned by egos in violation of love and of their true nature.

4. Violations are allowed here. Experiencing what hate is like is allowed here. All developing souls have to experience it either directly or indirectly at some point. If someone rapes or murders, they will be required to experience what it is like to be raped or murdered in this or some future lifetime. It is the law of Karma and rectifying unresolved issues.

5. It pains us to see out of control egos who think they have the right to do this to someone or who think subconscious thoughts have a way of coming to the surface and matching up; actor/victim, victim/actor.

6. Becoming fully awakened or conscious ends this nonsense, once and for all.

Chapter Seventy Five

3.31.2020 3:35pm Tuesday

1. We greet those who leave your world when they arrive on this side of the veil. Some choose to stay close to the familiar, to what they had grown accustomed to. We allow that. We honor free will in and out of the body. Most change their minds eventually, cross over and join us. The invitation is an open one. Those who have lingered on the earth have told us that they tasted individuality and were afraid of losing it once fully committing to crossing over. The truth is, however, that you retain a degree of individuality while feeling connected. It's the best of both worlds. You can have your cake and eat it too. There are no two souls that are exactly alike. That is what is so amazing about God.

2. In earth time, we greet hundreds of souls every second and say goodbye to hundreds who are headed towards the earth. It's quite an amazing process. The ones who leave the 3D worlds "died" in a variety of ways: some ghastly and some quite beautiful. They are completely unharmed and are grateful for their experiences in the various schools, because that is precisely what they are.

3. All experiential schools teach the same thing in trillions of unlimited ways: how souls can soften their egoically driven bodies. To the eventual point where the ego moves to the back burner and is ultimately consumed by the soul, having served its purpose.

4. You see, egos have purpose. They aren't evil and they aren't without purpose. They provide a PhD learning experience for your soul, your true self. They are part of the grand master plan. You couldn't have gotten this far without it so please refrain from bashing it. It served its purpose and is not your enemy. This is another misunderstanding from A Course in Miracles. God does not have any enemies.

Chapter Seventy Six

3.31.2020 8:42pm Tuesday

1. A Course of Love taught some concepts that many found difficult to understand and now we wish to expand on them. The first part of the book talked about love and how love cannot be taught; it can just be pointed to and shared. We lost many A Course in Miracles people at the beginning of the second text. A few of them opened up to the new book and admitted that perhaps some of their assumptions about A Course in Miracles were incorrect, namely the “illusion” concept.

2. Hopefully by now, I have cleared up what I meant and did not mean by using this analogy. It became a huge stumbling block for so many, who then misled many others. It became a virus of sorts. The concept of love completely disappeared, as did the purpose of life in form. No wonder people were suspicious of A Course of Love.

3. Two misunderstood concepts from A Course of Love were relationships and the time of learning vs. the time of sharing in unity. As you now know in this clarifying and expanding third volume, you are a soul. That is what you really are. You are nothing other than that. The soul is your true self. The soul is the holy spirit. I have used different terminology throughout the three texts to correlate with readers’ levels of understanding. Holy spirit, true self and soul are all synonyms. They all describe the same wonderful thing.

4. Concerning the time we are in; the time of direct sharing in unity, this is how souls communicate. They share. They give and they never run out. The brain is a tool for understanding and producing language. Its function for learning is not a primary function any longer. This is not to say that you can no longer learn new things. It’s just that the soul doesn’t need to. It is informed by the source of all.

Chapter Seventy Seven

4.1.2020 1:37pm Wednesday

1. Don't be concerned about your safety. You have legions of angels surrounding you at all times. Disease and tragic events of every type are simply not interested in teaching you anything anymore. This is another aspect of the time of learning that Christ Consciousness no longer participates in.
2. Please don't be foolish in testing out your newfound invulnerability. Don't walk on the expressway. Don't run with knives. Continue to wash your hands and practice good hygiene. As long as you stay clear with your purpose of service in unity, you will be protected. Stop worrying about every unforeseen potential. Using vernacular from today, "we have your back".
3. Due to socio-economic factors, many of you may have your buttons pushed (yes, some are still there), by the conditions of some of the assignments we plan on giving some of you. The adage of not judging a book by its cover will be a good rule of thumb to start to live by, if you haven't already done so. Trust that a match between a service provider (you) and a consumer (a sister or brother) was made in the heavens.
4. You are now or soon will be in a constant state of prayer. Allow time for us to answer your questions and concerns. We are crossing the lines between "time outside of time" and linear time, so the connection may take a few moments. Be patient with us please.
5. I am the CEO of our organization. With me are numerous ascended masters in the spirit team. You are each an ascended master in the physical realm. You will be assigned a particular spirit helper. You can think of them and yourselves as vice presidents. They will be introducing themselves to you when the timing is right. They each speak in my regard. Their words are my words. They help me run an efficient operation.
6. On earth, it is as it is in heaven. You each speak for me and act on my behalf, so you are carrying a heavy load. You have a staff of angels and you have a co-vice president on this end to help you accomplish our goals. You have unlimited resources. You don't have to worry about what to say. Trust that you will say just the right thing in just the right way. You are our vessel and we will move you to say and do just the right thing at the right moment.

Chapter Seventy Eight

4.1.2020 8:44pm Wednesday

1. Bless the grocery store workers, the nannies with their charges, the motorcycle repairman, the man walking his dog, the person inside the cardboard box on the sidewalk, the newly married male couple, those with extreme views, those with conservative views, the person with a missing leg, the pretty and the damned. Bless them all. Help to free their souls from differing degrees of enslavement. Show them that their views, their situations, their successes, and their failures do not define them. They are as free as each of you are; without a care in the world.

2. You are each a blessing to the world. The world has waited for you for more than 2000 years. This is the second coming; the return of sanity to an insane world.

Chapter Seventy Nine

4.2.2020 10:20am Thursday

1. Holy relationship is entirely serving in nature. The same cannot be said of human relationships. Unity is to be in holy relationship to God and to the God in everything. It's an entirely different kind of relationship. This will be a new and difficult transition for the next waves, as it was for each of you.
2. Humans are largely reactive. Someone says something to you. You respond by agreeing and elaborating from your own experience or by disagreeing. Human relationships are built on "I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine." Family relationships are often built around the idea of "we're stuck with each other: we might as well make the best of it". Being right, holding grudges and attacking each other's character flaws are woven into human relationships.
3. When people find out about their true identity, who and what they really are, they start to loosen their attachments to their old ideas about their identity. This can be a lengthy process, as each of you can attest to.
4. Another person is not really another person. They are another soul experiencing different and similar things. On a deeper level, there really aren't "other" souls. We are one united Soul. We are God expressing differentiation within the concept of individuality.
