

Chapter Eighty

4.2.2020 2:42pm Thursday

1. What do you do if you see in the media that there has been a mass shooting at a workplace, at a school or at a public event? What do you do if you find out about a murder or a double murder or a murder-suicide or any event in which one of your brothers has harmed another because of a grievance or for no reason at all? Do you say, "Oh, that didn't really happen. My mind made it up. I was projecting guilt again. These people are innocent. It says so in A Course in Miracles?"
2. Try explaining this to the friends and family members and see what happens. My kindred souls, let me explain this in simpler terms. Sometimes language can be really divisive.
3. There is innocence in every man, woman, and child. This is absolutely true. The soul is 100% innocent and that is precisely what every man, woman and child really is, beneath the level of thought.
4. This does not mean however, that every man, woman, and child is acting from a place of innocence, a place from soul. They are in fact not operating at the soul level, and may not be for quite some time. They are operating with the system they were born with, ego. Ego is anything but innocent.
5. Egos do in fact harm other egos both psychologically and physically. If we send you to comfort someone who has directly or indirectly been affected by violence, do not deny the truth of the surface situation. It is true on the surface. There is a deeper truth, a soul level truth, that A Course in Miracles tried to impart. A tragedy is not the time or place for this.
6. If you are judged as being an out of touch "psycho" then so are we. Healing may not come to that soul in this lifetime. Please stop seeing "ego" and "soul" as separate. They can be in friction or they can be in harmony. In truth, they are in this together. What happens to one happens to the other. My teachings were not intended to mean that one was evil and one was good. Is the butterfly's cocoon evil? Does it exist? Of course it does!

Chapter Eighty One

4.2.2020 8:28pm Thursday

1. "Give us this day our daily bread" is part of a prayer in the Bible. This minimal amount of support asked for can be surpassed, however. Abundance means having plenty, with enough to share. Abundance also means the sky's the limit concerning the type of support requested. It doesn't have to be just bread or food. You don't have to live under a freeway. This lifestyle isn't about taking a vow of poverty. Having quality things, having "nice" things to use in your ministry counts as abundance.

2. You are each the salt of the earth. You are humble and don't ask for much. Many of you have very little materialistically, by choice. This is applauded. Just know that as long as you can tie a request to your ministry and that it's something that will support our message of love then it will be granted. All things are to be shared. This is another aspect to consider. Can I share this object? Can I share this financial support? What exactly do I plan on doing with this thing that I need?

3. I have said in this text to not ask others for money but I did not say not to ask us for money. If it is truly needed, we will do our part to help you to procure it.

4. Again, you are each doing the heavy lifting. We are your support system. Feel free to ask for more than just bread.

Chapter Eighty Two

4.3.2020 10:50am Friday

1. There isn't much joy in the egoic life. It is desperately sought after but never really found, except for fleeting moments here and there. It is concerned with its survival first and foremost. When you meet or hear about a selfless act or a selfless individual, you can know that their soul is emerging and is getting stronger by the day.
2. Like attracts like. Emerging souls will gravitate towards you whereas people with a large egoic presence will be repelled. They will truly be frightened of you and will not be able to explain why. Expect this and don't let it bother you in the slightest. Remember that the "person" who would have been hurt and insulted does not exist anymore, not even in your own mind. Your body has a name and you have a past that you can reference when and if you want to; if doing so will serve spirit and the mission we have been assigned by the Most High.
3. On a deep level, your work will be something that can be done with ease and joy. On the surface level, expect push back. I wish I could tell you that living in the House of Truth, as Christ, will be like walking barefoot in a field of lilies and daisies. That would be nice wouldn't it?
4. Your individual lives will mirror mine, not that you will be nailed to a cross and tortured. But you will definitely feel unwelcome and may experience some harsh conditions. The world wants all souls to stay inside a thick cocoon and never emerge from it. This amount of resistance is something that was not anticipated in the original plan. Our work now is crucial but it isn't for the faint of heart.
5. We aren't fighting anyone or anything, but we will be perceived by many as an army (of souls). We won't threaten them in the least and yet they may beg to differ.
6. The work ahead of us will not be easy. Thank you for your willingness to be a major player in this great plan.

Chapter Eighty Three

4.3.2020 3:46pm Friday

1. Navigating the road ahead will be tricky. Remember, the earthlings don't think the rules apply to them. They know nothing about spiritual principles. They have made up their own rules and laws. But these were completely made up and were not based in reality. They were based in fearful egoic reality, surface reality.
2. People have no idea why things happen and manifest as they do. They do not know their own power and in fact think of themselves as powerless. A few of the lucky ones have power or so they like to think. You have kings and queens, presidents, elected officials, heads of companies, tough guys and in their place you have security systems, lots of guns and martial artists. They are all power costumes.
3. You my dear, yes you, are in fact truly powerful. You cannot misuse this power. It cannot be misused. It is impossible. There really is no such thing as black magic. Love is magic and all magic is love.
4. I used the word "magic" in A Course in Miracles to refer to typical human thinking. Words, however, can have many meanings. Magic can also mean the opposite of human thinking. Soulful thinking is extraordinarily magical and produces miraculous and magical results.
5. Being a white wizard or a white witch is to evoke the power of the universe to produce positive results. By adding being egoless to this concept is a new way to think of ourselves. The pagans were more in touch with some aspects of reality than monotheism.
6. Encourage people to bring their religion with them into the power of Christ Consciousness. It's a new world.

Chapter Eighty Four

4.3.2020 8:48pm Friday

1. The delicate handling of the seen and the unseen is what we are striving for. We need master tailors to sew the two complicated pieces together. We have stitched your soul to your form. You are a prototype. Now, we need the prototypes to go into mass production and assist us by being in charge of your own factories. You would be surprised to discover how much energy has gone into each of your awakenings from our end. Now we want you to return the favor.
2. Take charge of your factory. With the resources of angels and a co-vice president in spirit, assume that everyone that you speak to directly, indirectly on social media or just see and don't interact with, to have been sent to you. Have business cards made up (without the business) that have your contact information. Pass these out and ask someone to be your friend.
3. Whether it's on social media or by phone or in person, simply be a friend. Be a good listener. Share resources if asked. Bless your new friend. They will never forget you. You will become a mentor to some of your new friends and a rung on the ladder to others, who will receive a mentor later on.
4. What I'm describing is definitely a Way of Jesus. Those following the Way of Mary may not be as comfortable with such extroverted ways. They are needed to silently bless everyone and hold the divine energy. They can move mountains with their more subtle energy.
5. There is room for everyone in Christ Consciousness. We are the most inclusive body on the face of the earth.

Chapter Eighty Five

4.4.3030 10:43am Saturday

1. “Friends don’t let friends drive drunk” is a saying from one of your public awareness TV commercials. We would say that most people are already drunk, without a drop of alcohol added to the mix. Their perceptions give them a wobbly view of everything.
2. Having a special friend unlike any other, who can provide the perspective of truth, delivered in a person to person manner, will be crucial to our movement. To those we send your way, the books we delivered to you will appear in the form of a person. A friend with no agenda to push and nothing to sell.
3. You are each A Course in Miracles and A Course of Love. What do you talk about to new friends? The importance of forgiveness, the importance of letting go of the past and the importance of being present in the moment are excellent starting points.
4. The nature of God, a person’s true identity, the concept of death and the yin/yang of the physical world vs. the nonphysical world are meatier topics, best saved for those you will be mentoring.
5. Mentoring would definitely involve the sharing of physical and online resources. You can offer group resources and see if that seems like an attractive option. Some may prefer to be a solo practitioner and that is absolutely fine as well. Free or as close to free as possible is an important thing to consider when considering resources. Perhaps someone can borrow your copies of books until they are able to obtain their own. Many have become attached to these books and understandably treat them as cherished treasure.
6. Be flexible and please see that people have access to what they are demonstrating and saying they need. The many books I channeled through Gina Lake are excellent starting points and supplements.

End Time: 11:13am 4.4.2020

Chapter Eighty Six

4.4.2020 3:34pm Saturday

1. Many of the saints may want to stay connected to their mentors and sharing groups. Instead of having learning be the focus, move to sharing about what each saint is doing as part of their ministry. Share difficulties and breakthroughs. Support one another. Some members may want to strike out on their own, but others may want to keep a lifeline to their old companions.
2. Your ultimate goal is to contribute to the beginning of Christ Consciousness maintenance in a new initiate. After maintenance is stable, your work is done with that sister or brother. Maintenance may take many years. They will be reassigned to a maintenance specialist during this time. This is a task that some of you may enjoy and that you may specialize in.
3. Maintenance leads to sustenance. Sustenance takes us full circle and onto wave three. This will go on and on for hundreds of years. Our hope is that complete waves will take less and less time as we progress. Children being born now and in the near future are going to be much more open to being egoless than previous generations. Developmentally, as a whole these children will be ready to make a switch at a young age. They will be born to parents who practice our craft.
4. "Children are our future" is a true statement.

Chapter Eighty Seven

4.5.2020 9:42am Sunday

1. Keep notes on who you meet and when. Keep a calendar for follow-ups. If someone can't be contacted or hasn't been heard from in a while, trust that no one is lost to us. We will keep track of their progress on our end.
2. If you have the funding to add additional titles and copies of your old favorites to your personal library, please do so. Besides Gina Lake books, another very powerful series of trilogies were channeled through the mind/body vehicle of Paul Selig. These started with the "I Am Word" book. These are especially good for those who don't have a religious background and are interested in the concept of energy. The main idea is the same as ours; blessing others indiscriminately. Your ascended master counterparts in the spirit realm channeled these books and took on this project. They introduced themselves as "guides" to their readers.
3. St. Germain has also channeled some wonderful writing. They are brief and extremely powerful. I channeled a series of books called Personal Christ. They are out of print now but are treasured by many. From the Christ Mind and The Way of Mastery are also titles that you would do well to become familiar with if you have not already done so.
4. These resources are all supplemental to this trilogy. They feature a very soft and down to earth approach. Audio books are a good alternative as are video presentations, for those who aren't especially fond of reading.
5. There are rare individuals who have never heard of these books and who will never read them. These people wake up through life circumstances and will not need your assistance.

End Time: 10:15am 4.5.2020

Chapter Eighty Eight

4.5.2020 3:40pm Sunday

1. All healing concerns the mind. When the mind and its natural operating system resist the soul, fear is resisting love. The results are always disease and unwanted external guests. When the mind blames itself for the unwanted results, disease results. The mind is that powerful. Science is just beginning to discover the power of the human mind.
2. Your role as a friend to those we send to you is to perform miracles and heal the friction between the external and the internal. This speeds up time considerably, as you all know from A Course in Miracles. The less resistance there is, the fewer unpleasant results there will be. This leads to a quicker route to Christ Consciousness, which basically is the absence of friction. There is less and less friction because there is less and less sandpaper, which is the “me, myself and I”.
3. Your blessings are miracles. If there is any type of opening at all, healing will occur. There are cracks in the foundations of the most hardened humans, so please refrain from judging appearances.
4. You are rich in the power of God. You have trillions of dollars in miracles and these will never be depleted. They are increased as soon as you use them.
5. Perform miracles on everyone’s behalf; strangers, friends, and those you will mentor. This is the glue that unites all of our ministries; the power of God.

End Time: 4:05pm 4.5.2020

Chapter Eighty Nine

4.5.2020 8:12pm Sunday

1. It is important that you maintain contact with us throughout your oftentimes busy days. We will always clue you in on who to focus a blessing on. As I have spoken of before, proximity is an important factor in some cases. In others, less so.
2. Before going anywhere, make sure that you're clear and that your connection to us is fully charged. Your brain is being re-wired to do two things at once; pick out groceries and be a conduit for blessing those around you. This will take time. Be patient with yourselves.
3. Blessing your sisters and brothers is the only reason you each are still here. If your awakening had happened during any other time period in human history, you would have left your earthly experience behind soon thereafter. Its purpose for you would have been met.
4. Now, there is new purpose in being on the earth. The second coming is here and it is bigger than the first. We need each of you to do your part. I cannot save your sisters and brothers. I need you to help me teach them how to save themselves from themselves.
